Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Within a few weeks’ time Bishop Guglielmone will be with us for the dedication of our new church. The church is a fantastic witness to your generosity, faith, and perseverance as the Catholic community in this place. I have all admiration for what we have done in this part of Greenville as we reach this historic milestone.

Already the new church is being noticed by people in the community. Local people have commented, “Wow! The Catholics are investing in our neighborhood!” As Greenville continues to flourish there is much that is happening on our doorstep.

Next week at all the Masses the homily will be short because we will have a presentation after Mass from a team of people who are helping me with a parish consultation. Put very simply, we need to pray together about what God wants us to do here in this parish in the long term. The presentation next week will give information so we can pray and discuss the future in an informed manner.

After Christmas the team will conduct a survey and a series of informal meetings to gather your thoughts and reflections. We will be asking what our main mission should be, what we should be planning for the future in terms of ministry and outreach, and how we can best serve the Lord, strengthen our families, teach the faith, educate our children, evangelize, and minister to the needy.

None of this will be possible without the guidance of the Holy Spirit and the empowering of God’s grace.

I hope you will enter this process with me prayerfully and carefully as we discern God’s way forward for Our Lady of the Rosary Parish.

Your parish priest,
Fr. Longenecker
